

Walk, Hope and Charity

a charity guided walk by Alan Hovell, accredited Camden Tour Guide

Sunday 11 August 2019, 14:00 – 16:30

A communities walk following places of worship and reflective peace from Hampstead to Kilburn, numbering over 16 synagogues, mosques, Catholic, nonconformist and Anglican churches. Starting at Whitestone Pond, downhill to the architectural gem of South Kilburn.

Stroll in the company of others, agnostics, atheists, people of little faith, those in doubt and those of faith. Walk in hope for the people affected by recent attacks whilst at prayer and a Paris landmark scarred by fire. The walk will take about 2 hours 15 minutes. Tickets are free, an envelope collection will be taken, minimum suggested donation of £10 (waged people), to be divided between

Christchurch victims NZ fund <https://givealittle.co.nz/cause/christchurch-shooting-victims-fund>

Notre Dame rebuild fund <https://www.notredamedeparis.fr/friends/donate/>

Sri Lanka Red Cross bombing victims campaign <https://slredcross.give.asia/campaign/support-the-victims-of-sri-lanka-bombings>

Enjoy hearing stories about and seeing over 16 places of prayer, thought & spirituality from the 18th to 21st century.

BOOKING ESSENTIAL. Visit <https://www.aeolian.org.uk/whc.html> to book (free, one ticket per email address please) and for more information, or e-mail Alan on willhovell2@gmail.com

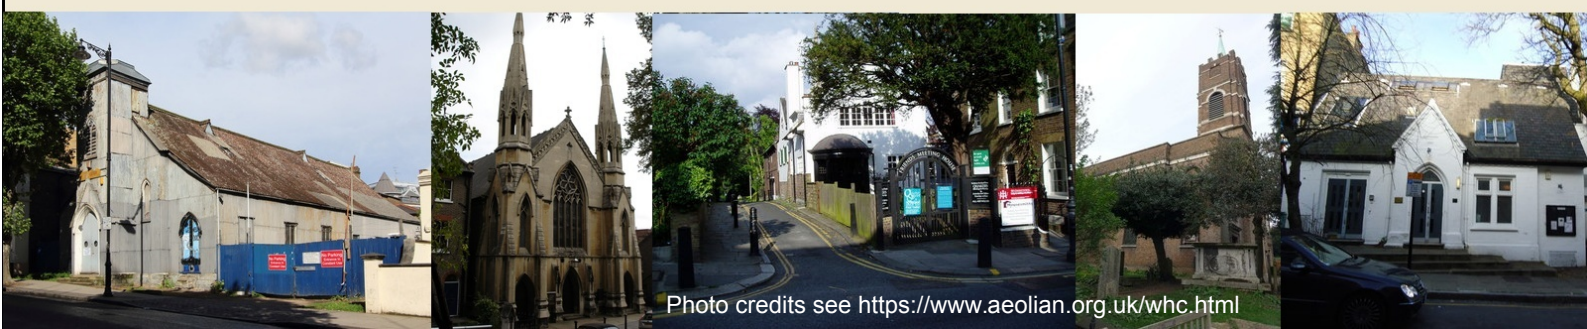

Photo credits see <https://www.aeolian.org.uk/whc.html>